Studio Theatre Perth presents HOLMES AND WATSON

Date and Time: Thursday, March 20 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 63 Gore St. East

If you're a fan of Sherlock Holmes, clever twists and a touch of theatrical flair, HOLMES AND WATSON by Jeffrey Hatcher is the play for you. It's a thrilling blend of intrigue, humour and the signature brain teasing deductions we've come to expect from the world's greatest consulting detective.

The play plunges us into a stormy asylum where Dr. Watson is summoned to identify which of three inmates claiming to be Holmes is the real one - of if any of them are.

The playwright's writing is sharp, blending traditional Holmesian intellect with modern pacing. The audience will be constantly kept on their toes, trying to piece together clues alongside Watson. Red herrings abound, and just when you think you've solved the mystery, the play pulls the rug out from under you with a twist that will leave you grinning in admiration.

The cast, which includes Patrick Bugby, Robert Del Grande, David Bird, Chrystine Williams, Rob Millard, Michael Couchman and Garry Welsh, skilfully embodies the essence of Holmes' enigmatic genius and Watson's steadfast loyalty. The supporting cast adds humour and depth and just enough tension to keep you glued to your seats.

Holmes and Watson is not just a play - it's a masterclass in storytelling that pays homage to Arthur Conan Doyle while carving its own unique niche. Whether you're a die-hard Holmes fan or a newcomer to the detective's adventures, this play promises a memorable night of wit, mystery and unexpected revelations. Don't miss it - elementary, my dear theatre goers!

Address: 25 Gore St. W, Perth, ON

Kingston Choral Society Chamber Choir at St. Paul's, Perth

The music folks at St. Paul's United Church in Perth are hosting the Kingston Choral Society Chamber Choir in "A Musical Potpourri" concert which will take place on Sunday March 23 at 2:00 p.m.

The KCS Chamber Choir is a 20-voice ensemble made up of singers from within the larger Kingston Choral Society choir. This group was formed to bring Kingston audiences the chance to hear works best suited to smaller ensembles, from early music to more contemporary songs. The KCS Chamber Choir performs primarily a cappella works, but also sings with the KCS's excellent Collaborative Pianist Clare Marion. In 2024 the ensemble placed second in the province in the Kiwanis Music Festival.

The choir's director is Ian Juby, who has been a fixture in the Kingston music scene for many years as a high school and St. Lawrence College music teacher, performer and Music Director with Kinsmen and Thousand Islands Playhouse musicals, and is currently the Artistic Director of the Kingston Capital Men's Choir.

The KCS Chamber Choir will be joined by the St. Paul's United Church Senior Choir for performances of two lovely choral works: "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" from the Brahms Requiem and a movement from "Requiem for the Living" by Forrest.

St. Paul's minister Don McLean, who is also a member of the Kingston Symphony, will add a beautiful cello line to one of the KCS Chamber Choir's pieces.

Also on the program will be “High Octane” a barbershop octet made up of six singers from the St. Pauls’ choir along with a couple of musical friends.

To round out “A Musical Potpourri”, St. Paul’s Director of Music Brad Mills will contribute a piece or two on the church’s magnificent pipe/digital hybrid organ.

Studio Theatre Perth presents HOLMES AND WATSON

Date and Time: Friday, March 28 7:30 pm - 9:00 pm

Address: 63 Gore St. East

If you're a fan of Sherlock Holmes, clever twists and a touch of theatrical flair, HOLMES AND WATSON by Jeffrey Hatcher is the play for you. It's a thrilling blend of intrigue, humour and the signature brain teasing deductions we've come to expect from the world's greatest consulting detective.

The play plunges us into a stormy asylum where Dr. Watson is summoned to identify which of three inmates claiming to be Holmes is the real one - or if any of them are.

The playwright's writing is sharp, blending traditional Holmesian intellect with modern pacing. The audience will be constantly kept on their toes, trying to piece together clues alongside Watson. Red herrings abound, and just when you think you've solved the mystery, the play pulls the rug out from under you with a twist that will leave you grinning in admiration.

The cast, which includes Patrick Bugby, Robert Del Grande, David Bird, Chrystine Williams, Rob Millard, Michael Couchman and Garry Welsh, skilfully embodies the essence of Holmes' enigmatic genius and Watson's steadfast loyalty. The supporting cast adds humour and depth and just enough tension to keep you glued to your seats.

Holmes and Watson is not just a play - it's a masterclass in storytelling that pays homage to Arthur Conan Doyle while carving its own unique niche. Whether you're a die-hard Holmes fan or a newcomer to the detective's adventures, this play promises a memorable night of wit, mystery and unexpected revelations. Don't miss it - elementary, my dear theatre goers!
